

Convenience Care Clinics

What are convenience care clinics? Convenience Care Clinics are staffed by board certified nurse practitioners and physician assistants to treat minor medical concerns that are not life threatening. Convenience Care Clinics are located in retail stores and pharmacies; they're often open nights and weekends.

When you need treatment for non-threatening medical conditions and injuries, you have more choices. You can get high-quality, affordable services for a wide variety of routine medical conditions at a Convenience Care Clinic. Because we believe that your doctor has primary responsibility for your care and treatment, the results of your diagnosis and treatment are sent to your doctor with your permission. If you have a more severe condition, or require treatment in a different setting, the Convenience Care clinician will refer you to your doctor or an emergency room.
