

Urgent Care Centers

What are Urgent Care Centers? Urgent Care Centers are centers for medical conditions that are not life threatening. Urgent Care Centers are staffed with nurses and doctors, and always are open on evenings and weekends.

Know before you go: In a medical emergency, always dial 911 or go to the nearest emergency room. However, when your condition isn't life threatening, you can save time, save money and get the care you need at a Urgent Care Center.

If you need help with your treatment choices or where to go for care, call the Cigna 24-Hour Health information Line at 1.800.Cigna24, to speak with a nurse anytime day or night.

Typical conditions treated at Urgent Care Center:

- Minor cuts, sprains, burns, rashes
- Headaches
- Chronic lower back pain
- Joint pain
- Injuries/trauma
- Diagnostic testing
- Ear aches
- Fever and flu symptoms
- Minor respiratory symptoms
- Urinary tract infections
- Preventive screenings
- Sore throats
- Vomiting
